airside drivers and air traffic controllers

From recruitment to retirement, working in partnership with you to ensure your most valuable asset remains fit and healthy in an affordable, professional and convenient way

Air Crew Medicals

Our fully qualified and authorised doctors (Aeromedical Examiners) are proud to offer an efficient and reliable service to a number of professional and private pilots which has allowed us to evolve into a leading provider of specialist aviation medicals in our area.

- Medicals to meet JAR and CAA standards as well as the standards of the major international civil aviation authorities including CASA, Canada, Hong Kong, UAE (GCAA) and GACA
- Personal service with a quick turnaround for Class 1 and Class 2 applications and renewals
- Renew and revalidate European Class 3 Medical Examination licences for Air Traffic Controllers
- Excellent availability of appointments
- Adjacent to Heathrow Airport, we have our own car-parking facilities and a rail link to the Terminal 5 making it quick and easy to visit us

Cabin Crew Medicals

We are able to provide periodic medicals for your cabin crew. These medicals can be conducted as part of post-recruitment and pre-commencement screening and can be repeated on an annual basis in order to ensure appropriate health standards are maintained for work in a safety critical environment.

Airside Driving Medicals

The Airport Operators Association (AOA) lays down minimum guidance regarding the standards required to drive on AOA UK airports. We are able to ensure personnel meet the relevant medical, hearing and vision standards including colour perception testing.

What our clients say about us....

"ANA and Heathrow Medical Services have had a working relationship since May 2001. During that time, the team at Heathrow Medical have managed all the Pre-Employment, yearly check-ups and also irregular consultations for us. As a Japanese carrier we place great importance on efficiency, good communication and attention to detail. All members are extremely helpful, polite and friendly and never fail to assist us with any queries or requests.

Heathrow Medical lives up to our expectations on every count, allowing us to ensure that our cabin crew maintain their health and therefore provide excellent service to our customers.

ANA have every confidence in Heathrow Medical Services and have no hesitation in recommending their services to other carriers."
